The Joy of Colour

H·& J·PILLANS·& WILSON·PRINTERS·EDINBURGH

The Joy of Colour

The gloom of the war-years more than ever emphasises the call of the public for Colour—the great buying public which every advertiser wishes to influence. Present your goods to them in warm, pulsating colour-tones that attract, interest, and arouse the "possessive" feeling in regard to your goods.

Colour in printed literature strikes a responsive chord in the minds of recipients. It influences them favourably by creating the right impression, and it secures that definite degree of attention which produces results.

There is an undoubted art in printing such pictures — while every printer can reproduce pictures, few obtain that live, joyous, attractive presentation which makes all the difference in literature intended to sell the goods.

We are modernly equipped to execute this class of "better printing," and we desire to get into touch with advertisers who not only believe in, but demand, printed work which is original, live, persuasive, and illustrated with powerful pictures full of the Joy of Colour.

Write, phone, or call for consultation on your proposition.

We can help you with better printing to secure better results.

The Glenboig Company are the Sole Makers of the "GLENBOIG" and "STAR GLENBOIG" brands, which stand first among Fire Bricks, for the construction of all kinds of furnaces subjected to the highest heats and sudden changes of temperature.

The GLENBOIG COMPANY purchased the Gartcosh Works (which were the closest competitors with Glenboig) for the purpose of meeting the demands of buyers requiring a cheaper Fire Brick of good quality, and they offer this brand with confidence, knowing that it is unsurpassed by any other Fire Brick made in Scotland, excepting "Glenboig" alone.

All articles manufactured by the Company bear one or other of the undernoted Trade Marks—

Purchasers are recommended to see to it that the "brand" is clearly stamped on the goods, as imitation brands and misleading uses of the word "Glenboig" are regularly resorted to by makers of inferior goods.

Glazed Sewage Pipes, and the Glenboig Junctions, Traps, and Inspection Chambers, acknowledged to be the surest preventive against Sewer Gases entering the house.
